MEN AND WOMEN, THIS IS FOR YOU IF:

- ♥ You would like to mentor a married couple.
- ♥ You are surrounded by people who encourage those struggling in marriage to flee.
- ♥ You know enrichment opportunities are important, but your spouse says things are fine the way they are.
- ♥ You want to be prepared for possible future difficult times.
- ♥ Your spouse wants a divorce and you do not know what to do.
- ♥ You no longer feel in love and you think its beyond repair.
- ♥ You are recently separated.

Couples are very welcome, but this one has a special place for "individuals" who feel as if they are alone in marriage or would like to know how to change a very difficult, and seemingly hopeless, situation around...without begging a spouse to do so.
